They are expected to have or to cultivate user engagement across the built asset sector value chain and to provide services that respond to the current needs of users. The level of participation expected of Chapters and Developing Chapters is summarised in the Participation Table included in Annex 6

- 10.2 bSI places great emphasis on the establishment of a friendly culture where cooperation is the norm. This is described in the bSI behaviour code. In particular:
 - 10.2.1 bSI provides an environment where parties who share bSI's goals and ambitions for open digital ways of working can join together for the co-development and implementation of International Standards and compliance regimes.
 - 10.2.2 Membership is expected to be a two-way process between bSI and the members. Entities with Organisational Membership of bSI benefit from the collective activities of other Organisational Members nationally, regionally and internationally. Entities with Organisational Membership of bSI are therefore expected to play an active role, not only in identifying issues, but also the development and promotion of solutions and standards.
- 10.3 bSI is a not-for-profit organisation and does not therefore have funds of its own to set up and run independent projects. Projects are therefore co-developed with Chapters and Organisational Members of all categories.

- 10.4 Membership fees are expected to cover core overhead and leadership roles, but do not provide funds to set up and run projects. Projects are developed and funded by members themselves or by obtaining external funding.

11 THE BUILDINGSMART INTERNATIONAL BRAND

Chapters and Organisational Members of bSI acknowledge and agree that all intellectual property protecting the names, logos and other insignia used by bSI and the bSI community (including, without limitation, the name “buildingSMART”) (collectively the “Marks”) remain the property of bSI at all times. The bSI Brand Policy is to be followed. The bSI Logo and Brand guidelines are available on request.

- 11.1 Each of the Chapters and Organisational Members of bSI shall be permitted to use the Marks to indicate their membership provided that:

- 11.1.1 the Marks are only used in connection with certification programs which bSI has expressly authorised;
- 11.1.2 the Marks are accompanied by an appropriate designation of the member’s affiliation with bSI and its Chapters;
- 11.1.3 use of the Marks does not weaken or damage and is not detrimental to the Marks or the reputation or goodwill associated with the Marks or bSI;

- 11.1.7 bSI may withdraw the right to use the Marks at any time on notice to the relevant Chapter or Organisational Member if such entity is not using the Marks in accordance with the above terms.

12 MEMBERSHIP INCENTIVE SCHEME

The Membership Incentive Scheme is a fee sharing arrangement between bSI and Chapters to underpin the joint membership arrangements.

Purpose:

- 12.1.1 The intent is to establish a mutually beneficial win-win incentive to assist both Chapters and bSI to increase membership, increase funding and increase activity.

- 12.1.2 The arrangements are established in the context of bSI's overall strategy to improve its performance by increasing professional leadership, the recognition of the associated overhead investment and the need to ensure financially viable business models.

Intent of scheme:

The philosophy behind the scheme is one of joint enterprise where chapters and bSI are encouraged to work in aligned ways which assist in the professional presentation of our activities and mutually supported Organisational Membership growth to strengthen both bSI and Chapters.

Shared Membership and Incentive Arrangements

- 12.1.3 bSI may grant certain membership rights in Chapters to Organisational Members of bSI as benefits to those Organisational Members and in turn compensate Chapters through the fee sharing arrangement set out here.
- 12.1.4 bSI will share 20% of membership funds received with Chapters and Chapters will grant Rights of Membership within their Chapter to Organisational Members nominated by bSI according to the following arrangements.
- 12.1.5 For Strategic and Multinational Organisational Members bSI may grant rights of membership in up to five Chapters (nominated by the Organisational Member) and the shared fee shall be divided equally between the receiving Chapters. For Principal and Standard Organisational Members bSI may grant rights of membership in one Chapter. 'Rights of Membership' means the normal full membership category offered by the Chapter according to its arrangements with normal associated rights. In the event that rights of membership are initially not taken up in the maximum number of Chapters allowed, bSI may reserve the unallocated share for the event that the Member nominates more Chapters at a later date.
- 12.1.6 The fee sharing continues for each year in which the Organisational Member continues to be a member of bSI.
- ~~12.1.7 In order to provide sufficient security to for bSI, bSI may 'ring fence' up to six Strategic Membership i.e. require Chapters to grant Rights of Membership in their Chapter at no charge. bSI will seek to minimise the requirement to 'ring fence'.~~
- 12.1.8 In order to ensure that any financial pain is shared in the circumstances where an existing member of a Chapter converts to a bSI Organisational Member bSI will operate a loss protection arrangement. The loss protection is calculated in aggregate (meaning that all revenue increases due to additional new memberships under the incentive scheme shall be netted off before any loss is calculated). Eligible losses are calculated as the difference between the funds received from the converting member in the year before conversion and the funds due according to the incentive fee sharing arrangements described above. bSI will share this burden with Chapters on an equal basis (i.e. in circumstances where the loss only affects one Chapter and bSI 50:50 and in circumstances where the loss affects more than one Chapter all those chapters effected and bSI will share the burden in equal measure). Any differences between the Chapters' local membership rates and the amount of membership fees received for organisational members joining after the inception of this scheme do not count as eligible losses.

13 POLICIES

bSI shall maintain and operate the following additional policies for the benefit of the community at large. These policies shall be published on the bSI website – Policies Page.

- Intellectual Property
- Members Promotional

The Board shall adopt such means as it thinks sufficient to bring to the notice of Chapters and Organisational Members all such rules or regulations, which shall be binding on all Chapters and Organisational Members PROVIDED THAT no rule or regulations shall be inconsistent with, or shall affect or repeal anything contained in, the Articles or the Bye-Laws.
